DYNEL SIMEU'S TIME AT ST GEORGE:

St George put a huge emphasis on being independent and I feel I applied that my ability to be a leader and have powerful communication. I would like to think I have a positive influence on others as a result of this. The school were really flexible in allowing me to balance my studies with the extra curricular activities that I had going on with my football. Teachers provided me with extra work and ensured that I was kept up to date with the work missed and for that I will always be grateful. I loved being part of the sports clubs at St George – especially the fixtures and competing against other schools. My most memorable moment has to be the Year 7 camping trip, it was a lot of our first time away from home and having the chance just to do activities we wouldn't get to do otherwise was so much fun! I now play professional football, I played youth football for Chelsea and Southampton and currently now play for Carlisle United.
